Abstracts

There were many health attributes that became less important to US consumers during the pandemic. FF claims in beverages tended not to be one of them, as products with added vitamin C, or anything else with an immune claim, benefited from the widespread consumer preoccupation with getting the immune system in top shape to fight off the COVID-19 pandemic. This was even enough to temporarily override other health concerns, such as high levels of sugar. FF fruit/vegetable juice in particular benefi...
