Abstracts

Due to significant cases of malnutrition in India, particularly in rural India, a number of government-run programmes have been established to address the nutrition and diet of children in rural India. As part of these programmes, the Food Safety and Standards Authority of India (FSSAI) brought into operation the Food Safety and Standard (Fortification of Foods) regulation in 2016, and is fortifying staples to address the problem of nutritional deficiency amongst the Indian population – for inst...
