Abstracts

Latin America is a core region for fragrance despite its developing status, worth more than North America in 2015 at USD$10.7 billion. Demand clearly exists but economic turbulence has been to the detriment of the category's identity, as purchases were dictated by the times and circumstance and not by consumer choice. Improving retail infrastructure will lessen reliance on direct selling, which will lower barriers to entry and improve accessibility and variety, as well as premium's plight.

Euromonitor International's Fragrances in Latin America global briefing offers an insight into to the size and shape of the Beauty and Personal Care market and highlights buzz topics, emerging geographies, categories and trends as well as pressing industry issues and white spaces. It identifies the leading companies and brands, offers strategic analysis of key factors influencing the market - be they new product developments, packaging innovations, economic/lifestyle influences, distribution or pricing issues. Forecasts illustrate how the market is set to change and criteria for success. The report also explores developments in the premium vs mass/masstige segments, and the evolution of novel beauty concepts.

Product coverage: Baby and Child-specific Products, Bath and Shower, Colour Cosmetics, Deodorants, Depilatories, Fragrances, Hair Care, Mass Beauty and Personal Care, Men's Grooming, Oral Care, Oral Care Excl Power Toothbrushes, Premium Beauty and Personal Care, Sets/Kits, Skin Care, Sun Care.

Data coverage: market sizes (historic and forecasts), company shares, brand shares and distribution data.
