Abstracts

In 2022, fragrances in India witnessed healthy double-digit current value growth on the back of favourable external factors, such as the full return of social gatherings, the surge in demand for domestic travel, and the return of most offices and schools to mainly offline mode. Social events such as weddings, office meetings, conferences, and others returned to normalcy after the severity of the pandemic dwindled, with low instances of severe COVID-19 cases during the third wave in early 2022. T...
