Abstracts

Free from packaged food continued to be impacted by the COVID-19 pandemic in 2021, despite expectations in the early part of the year that the pandemic would ease. New waves of cases hit in March and April and also in July and August, impacting public health restrictions and changing Canadian consumers' lifestyles. However, the sharp double-digit current value growth in 2020 resulted in a larger sales base in 2021 and inevitably resulted in weaker growth in the latter year. When COVID-19 first a...

Euromonitor International's Free From in Canada report tracks the developments of health-associated product types and the healthy-option positioning of competing brands across different food sectors.
