Abstracts

As plant-based meat brands started entering retail channels in 2020 in an effort to increase their outreach beyond foodservice, which suffered significantly in this year, the rise of meat alternatives has been ongoing and has shown no signs of slowing down in 2021, with even more choices offered to consumers across retail channels such as supermarkets and e-commerce.

Euromonitor International's Free From in Singapore report tracks the developments of health-associated product types and the healthy-option positioning of competing brands across different food sectors. It provides the latest retail sales data 2017-2021, allowing you to compare health and wellness categories with each other or in the context of the total market for a sector. It identifies the leading companies, the leading brands and offers strategic analysis of key factors influencing the market- be they new product developments, legislative context or lifestyle influences. Forecasts to 2026 illustrate how the market is set to change.

Product coverage: Free From Allergens, Free From Dairy, Free From Gluten, Free From Lactose, Free From Meat.

Data coverage: market sizes (historic and forecasts), company shares, brand shares and distribution data.
