Abstracts

The summer of 2022 was one of the hottest on record, with stronger heatwaves compared with past summers. Consumers therefore looked for food options that were healthy, and that at the same time could beat the summer heat. They included fruits on multiple consumption occasions. In particular, there was a steep rise in the consumption of fruits such as watermelon, mango, and melon in 2022, sales of which rose to significantly higher levels than pre-pandemic. This was due to the fact that in the su...
