Abstracts

Full-service restaurants did not avoid the significant wave of price rises seen throughout the consumer foodservice industry at the end of the review period. Restaurants again saw significant price rises in 2023, as the price of dairy continued to rise. In addition, the cost of vegetables has increased with the Israel-Hamas War, as many people who worked picking vegetables were foreign nationals who are no longer in the country. Furthermore, the south, near the Gaza border, is an area in which a...
