Abstracts

Furniture and homewares stores in Australia saw revenues grow by 3% in 2012 – the retail channel generated A$7.4 billion over the year. The growth of 3% in revenues was a good result, considering the weak consumer sentiment experienced during 2012.

Euromonitor International's Furniture and Homewares Stores in Australia report offers insight into key trends and developments driving the industry. The report examines all retail channels to provide sector insight. Channels include hypermarkets, supermarkets, discounters, convenience stores, mixed retailers, health and beauty retailers, clothing and footwear retailers, furniture and furnishing stores, DIY and hardware stores, durable goods retailers, leisure and personal goods retailers. There are profiles of leading retailers, with analysis of their performance and the challenges they face. There is also analysis of non-store retailing: vending; homeshopping; internet retailing; direct selling, as available.

Data coverage: market sizes (historic and forecasts), company shares, brand shares and distribution data.
