Abstracts

Furniture and homewares stores registered a 3% decline in current value sales in 2012 to reach CZK25 billion. The drop in sales was attributable to the worsening economic situation, which forced consumers to continue to cut back on their spending on furniture and homewares. Retail value sales started to fall in 2009, due to the outbreak of the financial crisis, and they continued to decline over the remainder of the review period. Consumers reduced or postponed purchases of furniture and...
