Abstracts

As disposable incomes continue to decline and many finding access to credit facilities difficult, Irish consumers are increasingly reluctant and indeed unable to purchase "big ticket" items. Furthermore, the collapse of the construction industry continues to have serious implications on this channel. The total number of new buildings fell by 23% in the first six months of 2012, according to Geo Directory, a directory of residential and commercial buildings in Ireland, representing a 94%...

Euromonitor International's Furniture and Homewares Stores in Ireland report offers insight into key trends and developments driving the industry. The report examines all retail channels to provide sector insight. Channels include hypermarkets, supermarkets, discounters, convenience stores, mixed retailers, health and beauty retailers, clothing and footwear retailers, furniture and furnishing stores, DIY and hardware stores, durable goods retailers, leisure and personal goods retailers. There are profiles of leading retailers, with analysis of their performance and the challenges they face. There is also analysis of non-store retailing: vending; homeshopping; internet retailing; direct selling, as available.

Data coverage: market sizes (historic and forecasts), company shares, brand shares and distribution data.
