Abstracts

Many Moroccan households became more interested in making their homes more modern towards the end of the review period and these developing needs and tastes benefited furniture and homewares stores. Morocco's furniture and homewares stores are now offering potential customers a wide range of functional furniture which responds to their need for more innovative and modern home decor.

Euromonitor International's Furniture and Homewares Stores in Morocco report offers insight into key trends and developments driving the industry. The report examines all retail channels to provide sector insight. Channels include hypermarkets, supermarkets, discounters, convenience stores, mixed retailers, health and beauty retailers, clothing and footwear retailers, furniture and furnishing stores, DIY and hardware stores, durable goods retailers, leisure and personal goods retailers. There are profiles of leading retailers, with analysis of their performance and the challenges they face. There is also analysis of non-store retailing: vending; homeshopping; internet retailing; direct selling, as available.

Data coverage: market sizes (historic and forecasts), company shares, brand shares and distribution data.
