Abstracts

Retail distribution in personal accessories has undergone upheaval in recent times. The evolving landscape has internet retailing as a rising star, whereas traditional stalwarts, specialist retailers and department stores, struggle to regain identity and renewed purpose. This report pinpoints the key forces driving fundamental shifts in store-based retailing and analyses the focus areas and future opportunities in store for specialist retailers and department stores.

Euromonitor International's The Future of Bricks and Clicks in Personal Accessories - Part I: The Physical Store global briefing offers detailed strategic analysis of the global Personal Accessories market by pinpointing growth sectors and identify factors driving change. The report identifies leading companies and brands within the keenly contested, fashion-driven competitive landscape, trend developments, economic/lifestyle influences, seasonal patterns, market and distribution strategies. Forecasts illustrate how the market is predicted to develop between mature and emerging countries, threats facing the business as well as opportunities to be seized for further growth.

Product coverage: Bags and Luggage, Jewellery, Watches, Writing Instruments.

Data coverage: market sizes (historic and forecasts), company shares, brand shares and distribution data.
