Abstracts

Surface care is projected to generate the second most value growth over 2014-2019 within the global home care industry, thanks to its essential status in consumers' home care regimes. Almost half of value sales growth is set to be generated by Asia Pacific, a region that contains developed, emerging and frontier countries. This report analyses the features and assesses the growth potential in these three types of market, which may have implications for other countries around the world.

Euromonitor International's The Future of Surface Care in Modern Living: Asia Pacific – Japan and The Tigers global briefing offers an insight into to the size and shape of the Home Care market, highlights buzz topics, emerging regions, countries and categories as well as pressing industry issues and white spaces.
