Abstracts

Moving beyond the Coronavirus pandemic to look long term, Euromonitor International asks what will the future of travel be in 2040? We assess what will be the big shifts and drivers of tourism demand, what a sustainable future looks like and how brands and destinations will adapt to life post-Coronavirus (COVID-19). Finally, we take a futuristic look at how travel brands will digitally transform to deliver value-added, consumer-centric experiences that protect the triple bottom line.

Euromonitor International's Future of Travel 2040 global briefing offers an insight into to the size and shape of the Travel market, highlights buzz topics, emerging geographies, categories and trends as well as pressing industry issues. It identifies the leading companies and brands, offers strategic analysis of key factors influencing the market from innovation, pricing, channel distribution to economic/lifestyle influences. Forecasts illustrate how the market is set to change and outlines the criteria for success.
