Abstracts

The changing global business context means that the old ways are becoming less relevant, giving rise to a new work culture which is a marked shift from the traditional ways. The emerging work environment is defined by low job security but high perks, flexibility and freedom to act, while the role of managers is moving away from monitoring to mentoring and motivating.

Strategy Briefings offer unique insight into emerging trends world-wide. Aimed squarely at strategists and planners, they draw on Euromonitor International's vast information resources to give top line insight across markets and within consumer segments. Written by some of our most experienced analysts, they are designed as provocations for senior management to use in their own forum, allowing them to stand back and reflect on the behaviour and motivation driving global markets today and tomorrow

Data coverage: market sizes (historic and forecasts), company shares, brand shares and distribution data.
