Abstracts

Gardening power tools have grown in popularity in Switzerland's home and garden industry due to the country's high standard of living, large outdoor spaces, and environmental awareness. Sales witnessed an increase in demand in 2022 compared to pre-pandemic levels. The offering of electric or battery-powered tools helped brands attract customers looking for efficient and sustainable solutions. Garden vacuums by Bosch also proved popular power tools preferred by consumers in Switzerland.

Euromonitor International's Gardening in Switzerland report offers a comprehensive guide to the size and shape of market demand at a national level. It provides the latest retail sales data (historic date range), allowing you to identify the categories driving growth. It also identifies the leading companies and their brands, and offers strategic analysis of key factors influencing demand - from new product developments, consumer lifestyles, route to market and pricing issues. Forecasts to 2027 illustrate how market demand is expected to evolve in the medium-term
