Abstracts

After seeing a notable decline in value sales in 2022 during the waves of COVID-19 across the country, when many consumers lost confidence in spending on non-essential durable goods, general merchandise stores saw a moderate rebound in its sales in China in 2023, given the return of consumer mobility and the better operating environment when compared with 2022. Department stores accounts for most sales in general merchandise stores, and was the main driver of these growth patterns. However, in 2...
