Abstracts

The general merchandise stores channel in the Philippines, which is dominated by department stores, saw buoyant growth in current value terms in 2023. An increase in mobility, including the return of consumers to their physical offices, contributed to greater demand for products in such outlets, alongside the general revitalisation of the retail landscape. Growth was also assisted by higher foot traffic in shopping malls, where a high number of these stores are located. Moreover, as a means to a...
