Abstracts

In 2023, general merchandise stores in Portugal consist of department and variety stores, both of which continued on a strong growth path, recording double-digit retail value growth. In an economic adverse period, selling low-priced products benefited variety stores, with consumers having reduced disposable incomes and searching for affordable price points. This led variety stores to have a competitive edge in 2023, while the demand for affordability challenged and impacted the sales of departme...
