Abstracts

Variety stores in Thailand saw positive though slowed growth in terms of current value sales in 2023. The segment was hit hard by the pandemic and its economic fallout; many local consumers remained reluctant to shop from variety stores as they regard several of their products as non-essential. Some variety store outlets, like THB20 stores, for example, are focused on lower-income consumers and this consumer segment has been deeply impacted by the coronavirus crisis, with spending power signific...
