Abstracts

Prison trends are mixed globally, with countries falling into two camps: one, well into a period of outright declines in many prison metrics; and another, struggling to meet the needs presented by high sustained incarceration rates. These changes are affecting how prisons operate, what services they require, how they are staffed and how many inmates they hold. This briefing outlines the current challenges to the prison marketplace and where opportunities might lie in the future.

Euromonitor International's Global Prisons: Trends and Prospects global briefing offers an insight into to the size and shape of the Institutional channels market, highlights buzz topics, emerging trends as well as pressing industry issues.
