Abstracts

As global demand for chocolate continues to rise, demand for cocoa follows suit. However, as consumers' eating habits change, driven by health, wealth and time, there are now greater opportunities for cocoa growth outside confectionery. At the same time, the industry is facing pressure to produce cocoa sustainably, to maintain production levels and preserve the environment. These trends are discussed in this report, alongside the impact they are having on the global cocoa ingredients industry.

Euromonitor International's Global trends and developments in Cocoa ingredients (world) global briefing offers a comprehensive guide to the Ingredients market at an international level. It highlights the major drivers behind ingredient supply and demand, provides detailed analysis of the individual ingredient categories and the product categories they are used in. It also examines regional prospects, highlighting opportunities and challenges in ingredient usage.
