Abstracts

Enzymes are used across a wide range of consumer products, and, as companies invest in R&D, more uses are being found. Helping manufacturers to cut costs and using enzymes to reduce a product's environmental impact are two of the main areas for development. These issues and others shaping the enzyme industry are discussed in this report, together with analysis of the main consumer product categories in which enzymes are used, regional analysis and opportunities for future growth of enzymes.

Euromonitor International's Global Trends and Developments in Enzymes global briefing offers a comprehensive guide to the Ingredients market at an international level. It highlights the major drivers behind ingredient supply and demand, provides detailed analysis of the individual ingredient categories and the product categories they are used in. It also examines regional prospects, highlighting opportunities and challenges in ingredient usage.
