Abstracts

Mexican Government revenue continued to expand in 2018, driven by greater tax collection and increased borrowing. The year was marked by on-going economic growth in Mexico, fuelled by rising services and agricultural sectors, as well as still strong exports to the US, which had a positive impact on public finances. Furthermore, the Mexican Government increased spending and borrowing due to the general elections. All reasons combined led to the government's fiscal deficit rising to 2.0% in 2018,...
