Abstracts

The wine industry is challenged on all sides. Emerging markets, once hailed as the engines of growth, are slowed by geopolitical, macroeconomic and legislative headwinds. At the same time, Western markets struggle to meet the appetites of a millennial generation that has come of age and is being won away from wine by other alcohol categories. What are the forces that are shaping today's industry – the long term threats and the sudden shocks, the risks and the opportunities it may yet grasp?

Euromonitor International's Grape Expectations: The Global Wine Landscape and Decanting the Trends global briefing offers an insight into to the size and shape of the Alcoholic Drinks market in both the off-trade and the on-trade, it highlights buzz topics, emerging geographies, categories and trends as well as pressing industry issues and white spaces. It identifies the leading companies and brands by total volume, offers strategic analysis of key factors influencing the market - be they new product developments, packaging innovations, economic/lifestyle influences, distribution or pricing issues. Forecasts illustrate how the market is set to change and criteria for success.

Product coverage: Beer, Cider/Perry, RTDs/High-Strength Premixes, Spirits, Wine.
