Abstracts

The more aggressive reimplementation of so-called Saudi-isation measures, which aimed to counteract the failure of the Nitaqat programme and stimulate the weakening Saudi economy towards the end of the review period, piled high levels of pressure on the country's grocery retailers in 2016. The initiative first began in early 2013 and immediately had a severely negative impact on the operations of the country's leading grocery retailers. Despite amends being made by the government in an effort to...
