Abstracts

The war in Ukraine has had a profound impact on grocery retailers in Lithuania during 2022. As a result of the conflict, grocery prices have increased significantly, and the consumer base has grown due to refugees from Ukraine. This has led to an increase in value sales terms for Lithuanian grocery stores, as demand for food and other goods has risen. Furthermore, the energy and cost of living crisis in Lithuania has caused prices to increase drastically, making it the country with the highest i
