Abstracts

Group Abroun is expected to continue to benefit from its focus on offering the latest technology, high quality products and affordable prices during the forecast period. The retailer already offers a wide range of consumer appliances but plans to add furniture to its range in order to become “a full package retailer for Moroccan households.” 95% of the company's furniture will be imported from Portugal. In addition, Group Abroun is planning to improve customer service with the launch of a...
