Abstracts

At the end of September 2018, Haier Group announced a deal to acquire Candy S.p.A for EUR475 million. The purchase will allow Haier to surpass Samsung and LG in major appliances in Western Europe. It will also add two European brands, Candy and Rosières, to Haier's multinational brand portfolio. Haier is also likely to equip Candy with the latest technologies in connected home and industrial IoT manufacturing for expansion in Europe.

Euromonitor International's Haier Takes Over Candy to Gain a Steady Foothold in Europe global briefing offers a comprehensive guide to the retail sales data, allowing you to identify the sectors driving growth. The report also identifies the leading companies/brands and offers strategic analysis of key factors influencing the competitive landscape - be it new product developments, technological innovations, economic/lifestyle influences, distribution or pricing issues. Additionally, trade statistics and producer's shares will answer questions on where appliances are produced and where they are being exported to, how quickly these units are moving, which companies are producing how much, and whether all categories are behaving in the same way. Collectively, this gives a complete view in both marketing and production planning strategies. Forecasts illustrate how the market is set to change.

Product coverage: Major Appliances, Small Appliances.

Data coverage: market sizes (historic and forecasts), company shares, brand shares and distribution data.
