Abstracts

Hair care is a relatively mature category in the Philippines with this being reflected in the relatively modest growth recorded in retail volume terms in 2022. The largest category is standard shampoos but due to the maturity of the category it saw limited growth in retail volume terms in 2022 with the growth of hair care instead driven by newer and more innovative areas. For instance, salon professional hair care was the most dynamic category in 2022, albeit with growth coming from a low base.
