Abstracts

Despite a marginal decline in retail volume sales in 2022, as local consumers shifted back to pre-pandemic lifestyles and routines, including less time working from home and less time to pamper themselves, overall demand for hair care remained higher than 2019 levels. Products that focused on health and nourishment of the hair continued to be favoured, with new options being launched during the year. Similar to other beauty and personal care categories, local brands continued to leverage their b...
