Abstracts

Whilst premium wireless headbands were popular during COVID-19 as they had more convenient features for both work and gaming, high inflation and rising prices deterred consumers from paying extra for them in 2023, therefore mass products performed better than their premium counterparts in the year. However, volume sales decline was recorded in both categories in 2023 due to fewer consumers needing them than during the pandemic when home seclusion was mandatory.

Euromonitor International's Headphones in Hungary report offers a comprehensive guide to the size and shape of the in-home, portable and in-car consumer electronics products markets at a national level.
