Abstracts

Headphones registered a more stable performance in 2023, following a significant decline in volume during the previous year. Sales boomed during COVID-19, when consumers were forced to spend more time working and studying at home. With many consumers having already upgraded their headphones at the height of the pandemic, they had no need to buy new devices and demand therefore slumped in 2022. While demand picked up in 2023, in line with normal replacement cycles, the category struggled to gain...
