Abstracts

Following a marginal decline the previous year, health and beauty specialists in Germany recorded moderate value growth in 2023, mainly driven by the rising demand for beauty and personal care products. With rising overall costs in Germany, especially for gas and energy, but also groceries and the overall elevated cost of living due to inflation, consumer expenditure became increasingly conservative during the year and limited to essentials.

Euromonitor International's Health and Beauty Specialists in Germany report offers insight into key trends and developments driving the industry. The report examines all retail channels to provide sector insight. Channels include hypermarkets, supermarkets, discounters, convenience stores, mixed retailers, health and beauty retailers, clothing and footwear retailers, furniture and furnishing stores, DIY and hardware stores, durable goods retailers, leisure and personal goods retailers. There are profiles of leading retailers, with analysis of their performance and the challenges they face. There is also analysis of non-store retailing: vending; homeshopping; internet retailing; direct selling, as available.

Product coverage: Beauty Specialists, Health and Personal Care Stores, Optical Goods Stores, Pharmacies.

Data coverage: market sizes (historic and forecasts), company shares, brand shares and distribution data.
