Abstracts

Health and beauty specialists saw fairly static outlet numbers in South Korea in 2023, after several years of decline, but saw a second year of growth in current value terms. The largest channel in value terms, pharmacies, maintained growth in South Korea during 2023, although the rate of increase moderated compared with the previous year. One key contributor to the tempering of growth was the impact of inflation, which put strain on the overall purchasing capacity of consumers. Moreover, sales...
