Abstracts

In spite of continuing soaring price rises, health and beauty specialists performed well in Turkey in 2023, with constant value sales increasing by over a fifth overall, and with beauty specialists in particular performing strongly. Part of the reason for the healthy value growth was further openings of both beauty specialist outlets and health and personal care stores.

Euromonitor International's Health and Beauty Specialists in Turkey report offers insight into key trends and developments driving the industry. The report examines all retail channels to provide sector insight. Channels include hypermarkets, supermarkets, discounters, convenience stores, mixed retailers, health and beauty retailers, clothing and footwear retailers, furniture and furnishing stores, DIY and hardware stores, durable goods retailers, leisure and personal goods retailers. There are profiles of leading retailers, with analysis of their performance and the challenges they face. There is also analysis of non-store retailing: vending; homeshopping; internet retailing; direct selling, as available.

Product coverage: Beauty Specialists, Health and Personal Care Stores, Optical Goods Stores, Pharmacies.

Data coverage: market sizes (historic and forecasts), company shares, brand shares and distribution data.
