Abstracts

Although wellness tourism and spa visits are not a big draw in themselves for inbound tourism, there are an increasing number of visiting travellers who take advantage of high-end hotel spas during their stays. It has become a standard in high-end hotels to have a spa available on premises for guests and local customers, though the growing number of mid-range hotels also adding spas, such as Delta and Doubletree, underpinned growth. The rise in demand is being met by adding supply to the...
