Abstracts

Health and wellness tourism grew in 2013 for several reasons. First, Chileans saw an increase in their disposable incomes to spend on non-essentials in 2013. This allowed them to allocate more resources to pay for services to take care of their health, such as spas and resorts. Secondly, coupon websites offered spa services at discount prices, or transportation, accommodation and resort services as part of a package deal. This encouraged expenditure on health and wellness products in 2013, and...
