Abstracts

In early 2014, the first medical resort in South Korea opened in Jeju Island. The WE hotel was established by the Halla hospital as a complex that contains accommodation and patient's rooms, a medical check-up facility and specialised therapy centres in one location. The main target clientele is overseas patients with diabetes, arthritis and obesity from China, Russia and Indonesia. This type of product offering is the first of its kind in the country and is likely to become a role model for...
