Abstracts

During 2010, companies increased per outlet sales through the addition of value-added services in their stores. Spearheaded by Mercury Drug Corp, the company's pharmacies and drugstores provided customers with free massage, free consultations, free check-ups and free fat analysis. In partnership with manufacturers, Watson's offered free facials to its customers. HBC Inc allocated a makeover zone in its outlets which gave free services for a specific amount of purchases. Customers who bought...
