During 2016 there was a continuing emphasis amongst UK consumers on ways to achieve a healthier lifestyle. In addition to considering their formal healthcare options, consumers are also more interested in making choices with regard to their daily food and drink intake that will improve their health and lifestyles. As a result of this trend, all the main health and wellness categories, both in packaged food and beverages, recorded positive growth in 2016 over the previous year. However, because m...
