Abstracts

The country's healthcare and social services industry witnessed a slight rise in revenue over 2020, in light of positive developments within the private medical sector and an increasing number of people in need of medical services, as the COVID-19 pandemic hit the country. The healthcare sector was among the leading recipients of financial support during the pandemic, as the system nearly collapsed owing to Brazil having one of the highest rates of infection globally. Major challenges, inefficie...
