Abstracts

The revenue of healthcare and social service providers continued rise backed by the rapidly rising number of people in need of healthcare services and products, in light of the ageing society and the rising incidence of non-communicable diseases. The National Statistical Office (South Korea) reported that the number of elderly (over 65 year old) beneficiaries of the national health system was up by 3% in 2016 alone. As a result, despite government measures to contain healthcare costs (including...
