Abstracts

In 2020, herbal/traditional products is expected to see a similar current value growth rate to that seen in the previous year, with COVID-19 having little real impact on sales. Any additional growth in each category, mainly from stockpiling, has tended to be attributed to standard products, as although these may have side-effects, they are also considered to be more effective, which has been important to consumers due to the virus. Most individual categories are also expected to see similar growth...
