Abstracts

In 2023, herbal/traditional products is set to continue to see growth across all categories in current value terms, as health-consciousness was accelerated by the pandemic, and this is a trend that has endured and continues to affect consumers' behaviour. In addition, the increased level of tourism is also contributing to sales growth, as the higher number of people in the country creates greater opportunities for viruses and colds to spread. Most notably, the lifting of restrictions on the numb...
