Abstracts

During 2018, hi-tech goods industry in Saudi Arabia performed above historic average. Rising Saudi Arabia's energy needs primarily stimulated local production of various electric equipment such as electric transformers, generators and cables. Saudi Arabia faces an increasing population size and accelerating industrialisation, driven by large-scale government's initiatives to transition the country's economy away from oil sector. Due to this, Saudi Arabia's power consumption has been rising by 8%...
