Abstracts

Strong current retail value sales growth in 2023 as a result of inflation had a negative impact on volume sales in the year. The two major categories of dishwashing and laundry care were particularly affected by price hikes. In addition, rising budget constraints and uncertainty caused by the war in Ukraine and the energy crisis impacted consumer purchasing habits, and spending on non-food and non-essential products consequently declined in 2023. There were, however, some unexpected areas of gro...
