Abstracts

Ecuador's GDP has risen steadily in 2023 and is projected to reach growth of 2.1% by the end of the year, whilst unemployment has declined by 3.2%. Despite these positive economic indicators, consumers have been cautious with their spending. High crime rates, political instability and early elections, and the impending arrival of the El Niño climate phenomenon in the country have contributed to this cautious consumer behaviour. Hard discounters, known for their aggressive pricing, have therefore...
