Abstracts

Following the soaring prices seen in home care during 2022, unit price growth has stabilised in 2023 and current value sales are slowing. Nevertheless, Lithuanians still face financial challenges in 2023, such as rising interest rates, which is squeezing household budgets. In this context, many consumers remain very cautious with household spending and continue to seek out promotional deals. Major retailers, such as Maxima, remain committed to delivering discounts and promotions to meet the need...
